

The Vanguard School

POLICY: Vanguard IJNDB – School Website Publishing

POLICY ADOPTED: 5-15-24

School websites provide The Vanguard School with unique and ever-changing ways to interact with the community and improve student learning. School websites:

1. Allow The Vanguard School to provide current and complete information to the community at large,
2. Give the community a means to communicate effectively with students and personnel,
3. Provide additional avenues for teachers to help students meet high standards of performance.

Purpose and use of school websites

The primary purpose of the school's website is to communicate effectively with its community. The Executive Director with the support of the Communications Officer shall ensure that the site is maintained in such a way that the community receives reasonably current and accurate information.

If the school allows student publications on its website, the purpose of including such publications shall be clearly identified in that section of the site. These publications shall be consistent with the mission, goals, policies, programs and activities of The Vanguard School. All publications shall meet established school requirements related to student print publications and in accordance with state and federal law related to student expression.

Advertising / Sponsorships

Any use of advertising or sponsorships that appears on a school website must be approved by the Executive Director or designee. Guidelines for approval shall be established by the Executive Director or designee and must be consistent with school policies and guidelines used in other school publications.

The Board directs the Executive Director to develop regulations to implement this policy. Such regulations shall address student and staff privacy and content standards for website publications.

Approved: October 2015

Revised: 10-16-18